

“I cannot say whether things will get better if we change; what I can say is that they must change if they are to get better.”

— Georg Christoph Lichtenberg

“The opposite of poverty is not wealth. In too many places, the opposite of poverty is justice.”

— Bryan Stevenson

“Genuine equality means not treating everyone the same, but attending equally to everyone’s different needs.”

— Terry Eagleton, Why Marx Was Right

“Social justice has to do with issues such as poverty, inequality, war, racism, sexism, abortion, and lack of concern for ecology because what lies at the root at each of these is not so much someone's private sin but rather a huge, blind system that is inherently unfair.”

— Ronald Rolheiser

“The world howls for social justice, but when it comes to social responsibility, you sometimes can't even hear crickets chirping.”

— Dean Koontz, Deeply Odd
